WAVELAND GETS GREEN LIGHT TO REPAIR FISHING PIER

Photos by Cassandra Favre | Sea Coast Echo
The Garfield Ladner Pier in Waveland has been closed to the public since Hurricane Zeta in 2020.

STAFF WRITER

Waveland Mayor Mike Smith on Monday announced that the city received the green light from FEMA to move ahead with repairs to the Garfield Ladner Pier.

The pier sustained severe damage during 2020's Hurricane Zeta and has been closed to the public since.

City comptroller Kim Boushie said the city had been waiting on approval from the National Environment Policy in order to move forward.

Both Smith and Boushie said they were "excited" about the news.

Smith said, in addition to funding repairs, there is also money to mitigate from future damage.

Before the city can proceed with the bidding process, signs will be posted at the pier, the Waveland Library, city hall, the post office, and the city's website for 15 days, Boushie said. It gives the public the opportunity to voice their opinion through FEMA and MEMA.

Boushie said the total repairs are estimated to cost about $3 million, which will be funded by FEMA.

Waveland man arrested twice in separate child molestation cases

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Waveland police last week arrested a local man on one count of sexual battery of a minor just two days after he'd been released on bond for a charge of molesting (touching of a child).

Michael Eugene Moore, 67, of Waveland, was initially arrested on Aug. 17 for allegedly molesting a child, according to Hancock County Jail records, and was released on $65,000 in bonds on Sept. 6.

Both cases were reported in August, police said. The results of the forensic interviews in the second case came back after those in the first, and of-

STAFF WRITER

Last week, the Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen hosted a hearing for the city's FY '23 budget.

There will be no tax increase, Waveland Mayor Mike Smith said.

The total projected revenues are as follows:

General Fund: $7,201,481
Restricted Funds Revenue: $1,294,103
Debt Service Revenue: $669,051
Capital Project Revenue: $4,928,730
Utility-Water, Sewer and Gas Revenue:

Bay okays $40 million budget

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Bay St. Louis City Council last week approved a roughly $41 million budget for the upcoming fiscal year — up from $29 million the previous year — without raising millage.

"The general fund budget decreased from $12.8 million to $11.5 million," City Clerk Michael Reso said last week. "There is no tax increase or decrease in mill rates for FY23," meaning that residents will not pay more than in the current year, unless the assessed value of their property has increased for the new fiscal year.

Total projected revenues for the 2022-23 fiscal year are $41,586,112. Of that amount, 10.90 percent, or $4,530,813, is proposed to be financed through a total ad valorem tax levy.

Millage rates apply only to the general fund, Reso said.

Total projected expenditures for the new fiscal year are $40,955,208.

The total tax levy for FY2023 will be 69.05 mills, which includes 22.39 mills for the general fund; 2.23 mills for the 2020 G.O. Public Improvement bond; 1.20 mills for the 2016 G.O. Public Improvement Road bond; .93 mills for the city-county public library fund; 1.20 mills for the school three mill note; and 41.10 mills for the school district maintenance fund.

Several other funds and projects account for the increased budget, Reso said, including the new police station/public safety complex currently under construction on Main Street.

"Most expenses (for the police department) will be paid in FY 23," Reso said. "We have income grants at $2.5 million plus other funds that have already been moved into the fund by the city."

Other funds/projects include:

- Capital Lease Fund, $1.3 million. Reso said "if the city needs to buy equipment for the var-

Mississippi Expands Eligibility for Monkeypox Vaccine

SEA COAST ECHO

The Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) announced expanded eligibility for those recommended to receive the monkeypox vaccine.

The updated eligibility criteria are intended to provide broader access to individuals currently identified at highest risk for infection.

As of September 8, there have been 45 reported monkeypox cases in Mississippi. While anyone exposed to a person with monkeypox is at risk for infection, most cases in Mississippi are among gay, bisexual men and others who identify as men who have sex with men.

Of the total cases reported in Mississippi, 93 percent identify as male, 93 percent are African Americans, 67 percent are living with HIV, and the median age is 31.

Individuals 18 years or older may be eligible for vaccination if they:

- Have been notified or are aware of close, intimate or sexual contact with someone diagnosed with monkeypox, OR
- Identify as gay, bisexual, or as other men who have sex with men, or are transgender individuals, and
- Have multiple or anonymous sex partners, OR
- Attend events or venues where monkeypox may be transmitted (for example, by skin-to-skin contact or sex on-site), OR

- Are living with HIV, OR
- Have been diagnosed with a sexually transmitted infection (STI) in the prior 90 days.

Vaccination appointments are available to those who meet the above criteria. If you think you are high risk based on this eligibility, don't wait, take action and get vaccinated now.

The vaccine, a two-dose series, is available at nine designated county health department clinics. Please call the Monkeypox Call Center at 1-877-978-6453 to determine your eligibility and to make a vaccination appointment at one of the participating health department clinics. Appointments can only be made through the call center.

If you are at risk for monkeypox, you can help prevent infection by avoiding close skin-to-skin or intimate contact with people who may be infected, and you should be vaccinated if you are eligible. If you develop a new or unexplained rash, especially if you have been in close contact with someone who has monkeypox, isolate at home and contact your healthcare provider for testing.

IMITATING LIFE

I used to watch the Hollywood award shows religiously with my dad.

Even when I was in college, we would call each other and discuss whether or not we thought the winners deserved the said honor.

I don't watch them much anymore as it doesn't seem that important.

But, I still do visit the awards' websites to find out who won.

Last night's Emmy awards had several of my favorite shows and actors nominated.

"Succession" won for best drama and I while I do love the majority of the nominees like "Ozark," "Euphoria," "Stranger Things," "Squid Game," and "Better Call Saul," I was pleased that the dark drama / black comedy took home the top prize.

"Succession" is about a rich and powerful family in the media and entertainment business.

It's so well-written and keeps your attention at every turn. It's full of evil nepotism, backstabbing, and moments of bizarre hilarity. It reminds me of why it's never good to get in business with family.

Lee Jung-jae became the first actor in a non-English series to win for "Squid Game."

It took me a while to watch the highly popular Netflix show. But when I finally did, I couldn't stop.

It's a show about how far people without money are willing to go to win the ultimate cash prize.

There are children's games with deadly high stakes and it was refreshing to watch something so unique.

I do love Korean dramas. For one, they aren't afraid to write about the taboo. Just check out "Old Boy" for instance. Don't watch the American version from 2013, it's just not good. Neither was the American adaptation of the "The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo" for that matter.

I love how "Squid Game" intertwined familiar and popular children's games in the dark story. I enjoyed watching people rationalize their need for money — some were in dire straits — against their new-found friendships with the other contestants.

They say that art imitates life and I would agree. Whenever I watch a series, I think about scenarios that have either played out in my life or in the real world in general.

Hancock History: Ansley II

Between 1973 and 2005, the LaFrance Marina in Ansley changed hands several times. In 2007, Quitman Cates sold his dry-cleaning business in Memphis, TN, and decided to rebuild the LaFrance Marina, which had been damaged in Hurricane Katrina. Quitman Cates (b.1946) married a fellow American citizen of Korean descent, Kyong Suk. They have a daughter currently studying at the University of Mississippi. Quitman and Kyong run the business, and they rebuilt the wharf, marina store with live bait tanks, and fuel dock. An earlier development, the Heron Bay Estates, had constructed slips and roads in the harbor. However, the many camps in the development were destroyed by Katrina. Quitman has a boat to catch live bait.

In the last fifteen years, LaFrance Marina has grown and prospered. Quitman has one hundred campsites that supply water, sewerage, and electricity (30/50 amps). Motor homes are owned by the tenants that might sell for $20,000-$100,000. These campers live in the village off-and-on many months of the year and love to fish and hunt. In Ansley, the spirit of Poss and Mabel LaFrance lives on in Quitman and Kyong Cates.

On the Lower Bay Road there is a large liquid natural gas depot owned by Kinder Morgan Inc. This company is one of the largest energy infrastructure companies in North America. It owns and operates a network of liquid natural gas pipelines and terminals. This network of pipelines stretches from California to New England. The installation was constructed in the 1950's by the Tennessee Gas Pipeline which is a subsidiary of Kinder Morgan Inc. Over the last seventy years there have been occasional reports of incidents of fuel leaks and explosions. The fossil fuel comes from refineries in Empire, LA. A pipeline crosses the bottom of Lake Borgne and then enters the pipeline canal which intersects the Outside Campbell Bayou and the extends overland to the big depot previously mentioned.

The Terrell family owns land just west of Ansley. A petroleum pipeline that also originates in Empire, LA crosses their property built during the 1960's by the Colonial Pipeline Company for the Gulf Oil Company. A few oil wells were drilled in Hancock County during the twentieth century, but none are active today. An inspection of a satellite map will disclose an extensive grid of ditches on the Terrell property dug around 1956 by the Mississippi Mosquito Control Agency.

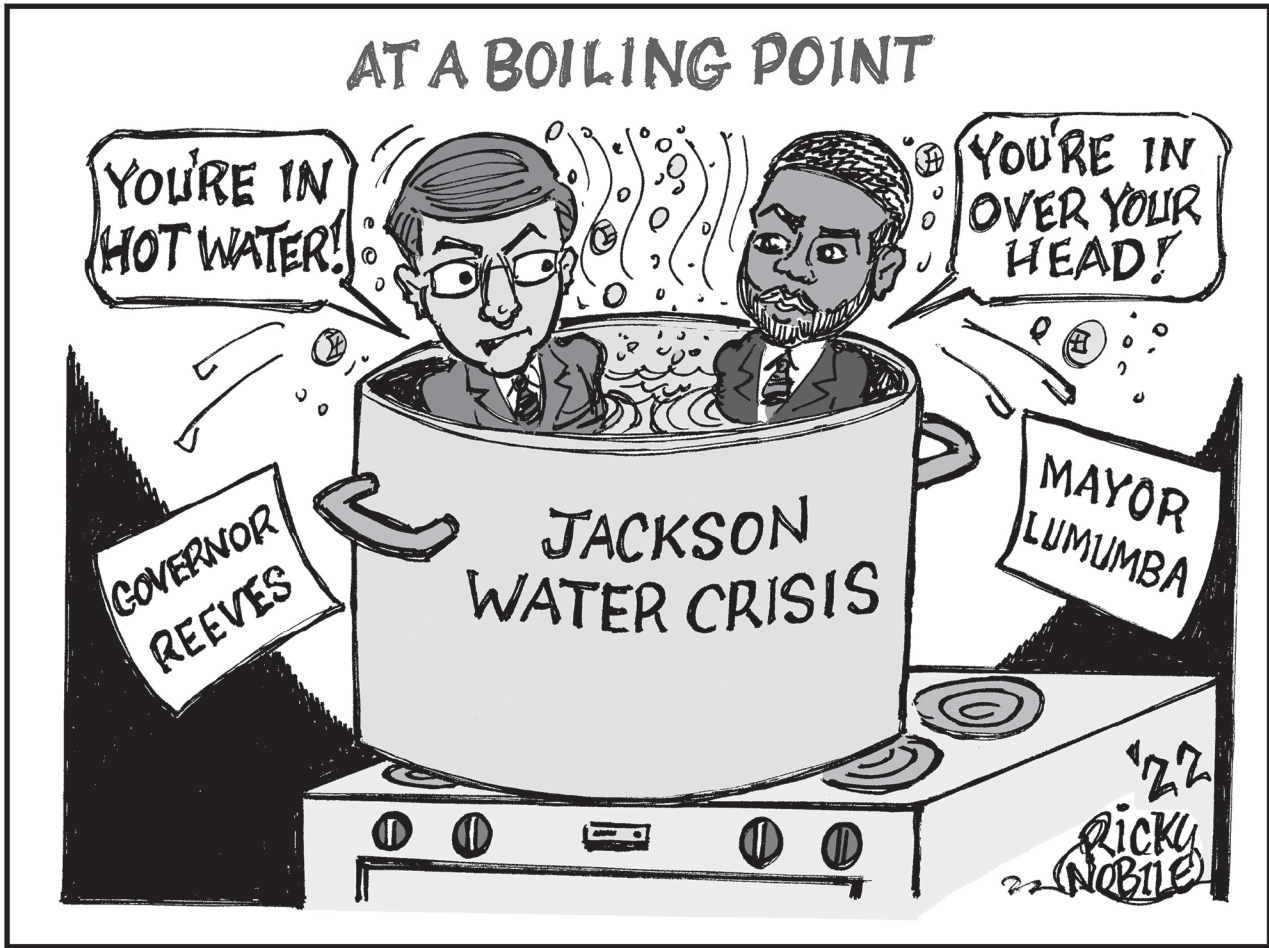

There is a Sportsmens Lake in the eastern part of Ansley, formed during the construction of the railroad in 1870. Dirt from this land was used to build up the foundation of the tracks. A private Turkey Bayou Airpark (runway) was constructed to service this private community and fishing/hunting camp.

In our next column the lush coastal marshland along the coast of Lake Borgne and the formation of a vast coastal preserve in Hancock County will be presented.

Conservation Corner: The Lacey Act

A company in the United States purchases paper made from pulp sourced from illegal logging practices in the country of origin. A commercial fishing company imports a shipment of fish harvested in violation of that country's fishing regulations. A hunting outfitter allows his non-resident client to take an elk for which the client has no valid hunting license.

What do all the above have in common? They are all violations of the Lacey Act. As the country's oldest national wildlife protection statute, along with the many added necessary amendments, the Lacey Act is still a powerful weapon in the fight against illegal trade, possession, and transportation of wildlife, fish, and plants.

The Lacey Act was first introduced to the House of Representatives by Iowa Congressman and Boone and Crockett Club regular member John Fletcher Lacey in 1900. Lacey was an eight-term congressman from Iowa's sixth congressional district. Born in Virginia, he moved to Iowa with his parents in 1855. Lacey considered this trip through the wild prairie to be one of the most memorable times of his life. It was during these formative years that he developed a keen interest in nature and an environmental awareness that carved a deep concern for conservation matters.

As a result, Lacey's intentions for this law were to broaden the powers of the Department of Agriculture by allowing the authorization to introduce and preserve game and wild songbirds, the prevention of irresponsible introduction of foreign birds and animals, and the addition of state laws for the protection of game and birds. In its original form, the Lacey Act addressed the growing scarcity of domestic birds, the international trade of bird feathers, the introduction of harmful avian species, and the growing problem of interstate merchandising of illegally killed and transported wildlife.

Intended to enhance, rather than replace, state laws, this act made it illegal to deliver for shipment, or ship parts or bodies, of any wild animals or birds killed in violation of state law; required clear markings and labeling of all interstate shipments of wildlife; and removed federal restrictions on the states' ability to regulate the sale of wildlife within their borders by subjecting all game animals and birds entering a state to the state's laws.

There is much to be told of the evolution of the Lacey Act over the last century, but presently it has come to encompass and prohibit two general types of activity. It first prohibits the failure to mark, as well as falsify documentation for, most wildlife shipments and provides civil and criminal penalties for such violations. Secondly, it serves to prohibit trade in wildlife, fish, or plants that have been illegally taken, possessed, transious departments, this would be done through a lease purchase.”

- Municipal Reserve Fund, $8 million, for “all of the projects in the city with grants and matching funds,” Reso said.
- ARPA Funds, $3,450,000.

Reso said the city received these grant funds in FY21 and FY22 and plans to spend them in FY23. “This is what we are hoping to get a matching grant from the state (for) to double the project,” Reso said.

I mean, how many times have people chosen money over someone else’s life or health?

In true crime documentaries, money is often one of the main motives. How often do people choose/have to work versus spending time with family?

Yes, we have to have money to live on, but there are precious moments with family and friends that can’t be replaced, either.

In “Succession,” it shows that just because one is born into a powerful family does not mean the children will have the necessary tools to carry on the legacy. Nepotism is never the answer and the Roy children in the show think that they should just automatically be given things because they share the same last name and blood as their father.

- Harbor Construction Note, $1.8 million. “The city has this short-term loan for the repairs to the harbor” after hurricane damage, Reso said. “This will be paid using FEMA reimbursement, which could take a while to actually receive those funds.”
 - Harbor Grants and Special Projects, $2.5 million, for expansion of the facility. The money came to the city through the Tidelands grant program, Reso said.
- The new fiscal year in Bay St. Louis will see “lots of great projects using mostly grant funds in the city,” Reso said.
- Also in last week’s meeting, council members voted to approve a resolution authorizing “premium pay” for certified firefighters and law enforcement officers. The resolution acknowledges the state legislature’s “Mississippi Law Enforcement and Firefighters Premium Pay Program,” which will provide premium payments to all eligible law enforcement officers and firefighters serving in Mississippi during the COVID-19 pandemic. The funding was made possible by the national Coronavirus State Fiscal Recovery Fund established by the American Rescue Plan act.

The Mississippi Department of Public Safety will work with the city to administer payments.

ficers corroborated the information and arrested Moore again on Sept. 8, police said.

Police said that the arrests were based on two separate cases, and that both of the alleged victims were under the age of 15.

As of press time Tuesday, Moore was still incarcerated at the Hancock County Jail with an initial hearing in Wave-land Municipal Court scheduled for Sept. 15.

RODNEY WAYNE DUNGAN, JR.

Rodney Wayne Dungan, Jr. age 44, of Diamondhead, passed away September 6, 2022. Rodney was born on June 21, 1978 in Gulfport, Mississippi. He attended Hancock High School and was an apprentice at All South Electric before entering his career as a journeyman electrician and instrument tech at Georgia Pacific for many years.

He enjoyed reading, cooking and dining with family, and lively banter with family and friends- he never shied away from difficult conversations, even (and especially) those of a political or controversial nature. It was best not to ask him a question if you didn't want the absolute truth, because Rodney was always honest. His loving, caring, and loyal nature ensured we were all truly lucky to have him in our corner. Rodney loved all aspects of UFC. He enjoyed watching Saturday night fights and football on Sundays (Who Dat?). He never missed an episode of Joe Rogan's podcast. He was the life of the party no matter what the occasion and would do anything to bring about laughter in a room.

Above all, he adored spending time with the children in his life- his favorite roles were Grandpa to his granddaughter, Dad to his sons, and Uncle RaRa to his nieces and nephews.

He was a hard worker and nurturing provider, and will be deeply missed by all that knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Frankie and Bill Mimm; Ruth and Clarence Dungan and James Allen Merritt.

Rodney is survived by his mother, Patti Dungan of Diamondhead, MS; his fiancée, Kay Gardache of Diamondhead, MS; sons Brannon Dungan of Lakeshore, MS and Jett

Dungan of Baton Rouge, LA; granddaughter Maevis Dungan; sister Stephanie (Arthur) Conway of Diamondhead; aunt Peggy (Mark) Small of Diamondhead; nephews Arthur III (Nunna), Trevor, and Mason; nieces Kourtne, MacKenzie, and Meghan; great-nephew Luca; and his beloved pets Bronx and Izzy.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, September 18th at 2pm at 67158 Diamondhead Drive East Diamondhead, MS 39525 as we honor the life of a wonderful son, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend.

COLLETTE MAE LADNER

Collette Mae Ladner, 87, of Bay Saint Louis, MS, died of natural causes on Tuesday, September 6, 2022, in her home surrounded by her family.

Collette was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Mabel Glaunert; her husband Lamar Ladner; her son-in-law Duane Collins; her beloved grandson Anthony Lamar Powell; and her brother, Ronald Glaunert and his wife, Sharon Glaunert, who was also a lifelong friend.

Born in Winona, MN, on June 25, 1935, to Henry and Mabel Glaunert, Collette became an active member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay Saint Louis, MS. Becoming a Catholic at the age of 64 was a source of great pride to Collette.

Collette spent her early life as a wife, mother, and wonderful homemaker. In 1979, when the family moved to Bay Saint Louis from Port Huron, MI (where her six children were born), Collette and Lamar opened Pinball Palace, a game room on South Beach Boulevard. In later years, a bar and kitchen was added and, after serving as the sole operator, Collette changed the name to Collette's Beach Palace. It was only when the venue was transformed into an antique mall and flea market and renamed Collette's Beach Antique Mall that Collette realized her calling in life as a purveyor of antiques and collectibles.

Collette never met a stranger and didn't miss an opportunity to make someone laugh. When she recognized her declining health, she often declared, "I want to live!" Although her body gave up on her long before she felt ready to leave this earth, Collette made the most of her every moment. She lived her life talking on the phone to her children, in-laws, and many friends, and treasured her time with them in her last months. Collette was well-travelled but also enjoyed eating out and shopping closer to home—or playing the one-armed bandits at the casino, uncaring whether she won or not. Although she was never without her accessories, professionally done hair and nails, or signature Clinique Aromatics scent, Collette was unafraid to break a sweat in the gym or swim in the pool she'd had constructed for her children and grandchildren.

Collette will forever be cherished by her six children: Collette Collins of Maricopa, AZ; Mark Duncan and his wife Tracy Duncan of Port Huron, MI; Scott T. Duncan of Diamondhead, MS; Yvette Taglieri and her husband Ronald Taglieri of Pass Christian, MS; Renee Ladner and her husband, and friend to Collette, Joseph D'Aluisio of Atlanta, GA; and Desiree Scott and her former husband, and friend to Collette, Mike Scott of Mobile, AL. Collette is survived by eight grandchildren: Diane Duncan of Port Huron, MI; Nick Collins of Maricopa, AZ; Jessica Powell of Crawfordville, FL; Savannah Scott of Mobile, AL; Sydney D'Aluisio of Atlanta, GA; Justice Scott of Mobile, AL; Roman D'Aluisio of Atlanta, GA; and Hannah Duncan of Port Huron, MI. Collette's three great-grandchildren are Deshon Payne of Port Huron, MI; Jayda Williams of Port Huron, MI; and Kyrra Powell of Crawfordville, FL. Collette also leaves behind a much-loved brother, Keith Glaunert, and his wife Lynne Glaunert of Cape Coral, FL.

A funeral service will be held at Edmond Fahey Funeral Home, 110 Necaise Avenue, Bay Saint Louis, MS, on Saturday, September 10, 2022, at 3:30 p.m. with visitation from 2:30-3:30 p.m.

Collette's burial will be at Gardens of Memory Memorial Park and Cemetery, 630 Central Avenue, Bay Saint Louis, MS (date and time TBD).

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to St. Vincent de Paul, 228 South Beach Boulevard, Bay Saint Louis, MS, 39520.

Collette's life centered on her family; as a mother and grandmother, she will be dearly missed. Friends will not easily forget her quick wit and charming sense of humor.

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Ms. Collette Ladner.

Amazing Grace

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

The word grace offers a dimension to the spiritual experience that is rarely, if ever, matched. The Apostle Paul wrote in one of his epistles that “Where sin abounds, grace does much more abound.”

The well-known hymn “Amazing Grace” is said to be the most beloved song in the lexicon of the music of American culture. That is probably true. Grace is an idea which is widely recognized and broadly affirmed as the heart and soul of theological wisdom. Sometimes grace is misunderstood in the broad discussion of theology. It can be viewed as a transaction. In other words, grace is too often thought of as something to be earned. The receiver of grace must “qualify”. It would be a great blessing if we could learn that grace is gift.

There is a wonderful story from southern culture which tells of a person from another part of the country who visited a small cafe in the deep south. It was in the morning, so he decided to order breakfast. He asked for eggs, biscuits, bacon, and jelly. When the food was delivered to his table, he looked at it, and he discovered that there was also a creamy white substance which he did not recognize. He asked the server to identify this unknown addition to his plate. She replied that it was grits. He protested, “but I did not order grits”. She said, “you don’t have to order grits. They just come”. That may be the best description of grace. It is like grits in the south. It just comes.

Throughout the pages of Hebrew and Christian scripture, and in many of the sacred writings of other faiths, the concept of grace occupies a special place. It stems from the notion that love is the primary characteristic of the divine reality. Creation itself is properly understood as a function of love and grace. The opportunities of life flow from grace. The challenges of life are overcome in the spirit of grace.

Grace does not signal an exemption from problems or the absence of accountability. What it does provide is the faith that circumstances do not ultimately define the direction, quality, or character of life. Yes, there is human responsibility. Yes, work is part of the equation. There might even be setbacks and disappointments. It is important to remember that even these realities can be moments of grace. Opportunities and blessings do not necessarily equal ease and comfort. What they do offer is satisfaction, peace, and the chance to take what is available and use it for good.

Yes, grace is amazing. It saves us in so many ways throughout our lives. It is the avenue of hope for individuals and for the world. It is not a deal to be made, but it is a gift to be received. In the words of another beautiful hymn, “grace is marvelous”. May it be embraced.

The budget is balanced with the city's projected expenditures, Waveland city comptroller Kim Boushie said.

She said she kept the budget on the "conservative" side, but there was no overage or need to pull from the city's reserve account or investment.

Smith said the FY '23 budget includes a three percent salary increase across the board.

However, in an effort to keep Waveland's fire and police salaries competitive with surrounding cities, in addition to the three percent, there was also a $.50 per hour raise for fire personnel and a $1.00 per hour raise for law enforcement personnel.

To keep the budget "in check," Smith said, several items from the departments were moved to the capital projects line item, which includes police vehicles, matching funds for a sidewalk project from Herlihy to St. Joseph to Old Spanish Trail to Margie, and utility/drainage projects.

Smith said the city plans to apply for infrastructure funding for the "center city" water and sewer project, which will provide water and sewer access to areas that are lacking, thereby making them more "buildable."

The city also has $2 million in Tidelands funding earmarked for the city's marina and boat launch project.

In utilities, the city raised the flat rate on gas services from $14.50 to $16.50, to cover the cost the city is charged, Boushie said.

The board is expected to formally adopt the budget tonight, Sept. 14, during a special meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

After it's adopted, the budget in its detailed form will be made available on the city's website at www.waveland.ms.gov.

kitty CORNER

Sweet Andretti, a 6 month old Siamese mix, was surrendered because his owner had too many cats. Understandably, he's a little shy about asking for pets and love, but he really loves attention, so just a little patience is required to get this baby purring like crazy. He will sleep next to you at night, and amuse you with his play all day. He is also super handsome, with beautiful blue eyes. Please give Andretti the happy, loving home, as an inside kitty, that he deserves.

MEET SHARON.
We were hopeful when we scanned this beautiful girl upon intake and found a microchip. But, despite leaving multiple messages and emails to her family, we received no replies. That was 3 weeks ago, and we just can't imagine her owners not looking for this amazing girl. She is a sweetheart! This 3 year old American Staffordshire Terrier knows basic commands and is so eager to please. She would love a home with a fenced backyard, as she really enjoys frolicking with her doggie pals in our exercise yard. Sharon could join any family dynamic and be a treasured addition to her home. She is such a terrific girl, and she deserves a true forever family. If you can provide Sharon with a loving forever home, please come by and meet this sweet gal during our visiting hours: Mon, Wed-Fri 10am-3:30pm and Tues 1pm-3:30pm. Or, call our front desk at 228-466-4516 or 985-285-2244 to schedule an appointment. Bring along your children and dog(s) to ensure compatibility.

Tigers tame Bearcats

BY JOSEPH KEYS
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Bay High Tigers on Friday defeated the Long Beach Bearcats 41-21 at Lumpkin Magee Stadium, in Long Beach. The Tigers offense was efficient throughout the night; however, Bay High coach Jeremy Turcotte credited the defense as well. “Our defense and our defensive coaching staff continue to put together great game plans. Long beach threw the kitchen sink at us and we just kept getting after them. I’m really proud of them”. Sophomore quarterback Xander Ladner threw touchdown passes of 44, 20, 49 and 13 yards, respectively, to lead the Tiger. The Tigers opened the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run by Jaden Antoine, and the PAT by kicker Brennan Acosta was good. The Bearcats would answer on the next possession with a 21-yard touchdown pass by quarterback Will Brady to Bryson Cooper with eight seconds left in the first quarter to knot the score at 7-7. The Tigers scored again on the first possession of the second quarter when Ladner connected with Lawrence Peterson a 44-yard touchdown pass to put the Tigers back into the lead, but the PAT failed. On the next series, the Tigers’ defense forced the Bearcat to punt. On the very next possession the Tigers would strike again with a 20-yard touchdown from Ladner to Avery Harris. The PAT was no good with 5:39 seconds left in the half and the Tigers led 19-7. On the next possession, Colt Busy of the Bearcats scored on a four-touchdown run -- the point after was good and the Bearcats cut the lead to 19-14. Then, on the ensuing kick off Jaylen Antoine fielded the kickoff at the Tigers’ 12-yard line and scored on an electrifying 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The two-point conversion was good and the Tigers went into the half with a 27-14 lead. Both defenses played well for most of the third quarter. However, with 2:51 second left to play in the third quarter, Ladner hit Avery Harris on a five-yard touchdown pass — it was Avery’s second touchdown of the night. Antoine ran in the two-point conversion, widening the Tigers’ lead to 35-14. The Tigers would score again with 15 seconds left to play in the third quarter when Xander Ladner threw his fourth touchdown pass of the night

Shore Thing: Luck be a Lady

Shore Thing Fishing Report
By Cpt. Sonny Schindler

Everyone is welcome on our boats. Men, women, and children both young and old can join any trip on any of Shore Thing Fishing Charters ten boats. Every once in a while, we even sneak a puppy dawg on a fishing trip... A lil while back, we had Ryan his wife Grant, and their son John Regan on a short trip. The forecast looked perfect, so he asked if their dog “Lady” could come along for the day. We weren’t planning a big long run, the seas were forecast to be flat calm, so I happily encouraged them to bring Miss Lady along. It was a good call. Ryan did the majority of the fishing. John Regan was the designated reeler and bait getter. Grant just chilled out, and sat with Lady. Their dog was was extremely well behaved. Truth be told, that dog better behaved than the majority of folks we take out. Several times, I forgot she was even on the boat. I nearly tripped over her a few times, totally my fault. Ryan only wanted one fish for dinner, and we checked that box after only a couple of Casts on a nice slot sized redfish. We tagged and released the rest of the fish. We did have several schools of jack crevalle pop up next to the boat. Ryan was able to get a huge one in the boat. After that, they wanted to see some of the area, so we just cruised around. Lady had a big smile on her face when the boat was moving and the wind was blowing. We made one last stop at Taylor reef, just out from Buccaneer State Park. They caught a few sheepshead and smaller fish. The last fish of the day was a big bull red, that we had to chase down on the trolling motor. Lady was nice enough to join everyone for a very nice family picture. It was an amazing day, with a wonderful family. I’m very glad they brought their dog, she was a very lucky Lady.

BY DWAYNE BREMER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Hancock Hawks on Friday rushed for more than 400 yards as they defeated the Greene County Wlldcats 44-22 in Leakesville.

Zach Gullung and Jeffrey Hopgood led the way, both rushing for more than 150 yards. The pair also combined for five scores.

It was a pleasure to watch our offensive line tonight,” Hawks Head Coach Neil Lollar said. “Overall, it was a good performance for everyone.”

Greene County opened the scoring when Isaiah Miller caught his first of three touchdown passes of the game.

The Hawks answered with scores by Gullung and Hopgood.

Later in the second quarter, Finn Cowan booted a 33-yard field goal to give the Hawks a 23-14 lead at the half.

Hancock extended its lead in the third quarter when Dylan Moran connected with Tanner Lander on a 22-yard pass for a touchdown.

Leading 30-23 in the fourth, the Hawks stopped Greene County on a fourth-and-one.

The stop led to another Hawks touchdown.

An interception by Bryce Ladner sealed the win as the Hawks capped the game with a late score.

The Hawks return home next week to play Lanier.

Crusaders run away from Rocks 49-27

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws (1-2) made the three hour trek to Pensacola to tangle with the Crusaders of Pensacola Catholic (3-0) on Friday evening.

The Crusaders ran away with the game 49-27 with a balanced attack on offense and a bend-but-didn’t-break defense.

Pensacola Catholic was led by CJ Nettles who scored twice while rushing 22 times for 289 yards. His scoring runs both covered 80 yards.

Aidan Byrd also chewed up the air for the Crusaders as he threw for 275 yards and 4 touchdowns on 13-for-22 passing. He tossed scoring aerials to Jayvion Showers (5, 6) and Ja’bril Rawls (30, 38).

The Rocks fumbled the ball away on the first possession of the game inside Crusader territory.

SSC knotted the score at 7-7 on their second possession of the game when Hudson Osborne connected with Canye Bankston on a 45-yard scoring toss with 5:39 left in the first quarter. Evan Noel converted the PAT.

Two possessions later, the Rocks scored on a Osborne to Bankston connection that went for 63 yards with 10:53 left in the half. Noel converted the PAT for a 21-14 score. The Crusaders held a 35-14 lead at intermission.

SSC pulled to within a possession game in the third quarter.

Bruno Dall recovered a loose ball in the endzone for a Rock touchdown with 8:05 left in the third quarter. The PAT missed leaving the score 35-20. This is Dall’s second fumble recovery for a touchdown in as many games.

Another strong defensive stand by the Rocks with a sack by Spencer Cornell and consecutive penalties by the Crusaders forced a punt.

William Carey University raises scholarship amounts 40 percent

SEA COAST ECHO

William Carey University announced a major restructuring of its academic scholarship program during a press conference Sept. 9 at Tatum Court. The change will mean an average increase of 40 percent in scholarship amounts awarded to freshmen, transfer, and international students.

This initiative was among Dr. Ben Burnett's first priorities in August as he assumed a new role as the university's president.

"While Carey remains very competitive with other institutions in Mississippi, and in most cases less expensive, we felt our scholarship structure was outdated and needed to be revised to reflect the needs of our students today," Burnett said.

"We want all students to have the option of choosing a Christian higher education as they prepare to answer God's call in their life. Hopefully, this scholarship change will make that possible for many more students in the future."

WCU's academic scholarships are ranked in four tiers and awarded based on factors like scores on ACT and SAT tests for freshmen, college grade point average for transfer students and whether the student lives on-campus or off-campus. Under the new structure, scholarships will range from $5,100 to $9,300 per year for students who live on campus, and $2,700 to $6,600 for commuters.

The new program takes effect in fall 2023. It also includes Church-Related Vocation scholarships for ministerial students – increasing those awards to $9,000 for on-campus students and $6,300 for commuters.

"One of the things I've learned talking to prospective students and families is that people assume William Carey's tuition is high because it's a private university. That's never been the case. We kept tuition low – but now, we've raised our scholarships to unprecedented amounts. Students can absolutely afford to pursue their educational dreams at William Carey," said Dr. Brett Golsen, dean of the Cooper School of Missions and Ministry.

Rana Abozeed, president of the WCU Student Government Association, spoke on behalf of the student body.

"I would like to thank our administration for the generosity and hard work they put into making a college education affordable. This will be of tremendous help for students to pursue their college education, finish off strong and get their degrees, and fully prepare them to be successful. We are incredibly thankful for our administration and the care and support they have for students," Abozeed said.
